Capitol Update – Week Ending 11/24/23

Capitol Update is a weekly review of state government. This week's topics include:

- House and Senate committees looked at ways to improve access to healthcare now and prevent massive shortages of doctors and nurses by 2035.
- Lawmakers took testimony on the lack of oversight and enforcement on homeowner and condo associations.
- A House committee held a workshop on reforming the way tow truck operators are regulated.

Capitol Report: November 24, 2023

On tonight's program: Mobile homes are among the last affordable housing options in Florida. IF you don't get evicted; It's no surprise that property insurance rates are going up for many Florida homeowners. But it seems that isn't the only problem, even for those who have policies with the so-called "insurer of last resort"; New state government restrictions on the collection of teachers' union dues is having a significant impact on the state's largest teachers' union and its membership; Music fans have their "Lollapalooza." So why shouldn't the retail ravenous have their own "Shopapalooza?"; Holiday shoppers beware! Not all bargain buys are for real and we have some helpful hints to help you avoid getting scammed; And the State of Florida inducts its latest members of the Veterans Hall of Fame.
